It claims the distinction of being the oldest college in the world for graduating and granting diplomas to female aspirants for academic pre-eminence. It is under the fostering oversight of the Georgia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. At the same time, its aim is to inculcate pure religion by precept and example, without insisting upon the enunciation of any party shibboleth. Like other similar institutions when new, it at first encountered many adversaries. One gentleman of large means said, I will not give you a dollar. All that a woman needs to know is how to read the New Testament, and to spin and weave clothing for her family. Another said, I will not give you a cent for any such object. I would not have one of your graduates for a wife, for I could never build even a pig-pen without her...
