I did as the majority do. It is the minority who rule. I may take a new hold. I have tried, but my brain seems to be dominated by a greater lower force. I see this, but as yet am powerless to prevent its action. Ah, my friends, keep your brain the ruling power. There are times when some people tell others to be honest. It seems so trite and commonplace that one hardly feels today like taking the time. It is like the old admonition that you so often hear, not to keep one's eye on the clock when it is coming near to the time when work is over. These admonitions are so old and so true that everyone has heard them. But this advice would not be used so often if it were not so...
