To His Excellency. Joel Parker. Governor and Commander in Chief: Sir: - I have the honor to submit the following report of this department for the year 1873: The daily routine business of this office remains the same as in previous years, with however an increased demand for searches for the records of soldiers of the volunteer army. Our time has during the year been principally devoted to revising and correcting the manuscripts and proof-sheets of the Official Register of the Officers and Men of New Jersey in the War of the Rebellion. This work is passing through the press as rapidly as the most careful examination and verification of each date and record will admit. We are laboring to make this volume the most complete and exact register of soldiers every published. The style and execution of the work thus far cannot fail to...
