PIERCE, and G. F. WARREN, Advisers By courtesy of Open Court Publishing Company, Chicago, Illinois. BIRD NOTES Every year boys and girls in New York State are learning to know ta birds better. We are receiving hundreds of letters from rural schools ia which teachers have this year helped the children to establish feeding stations for the birds, and have encouraged the building of bird houses We are constantly receiving excellent descriptions of birds that the children have seen, but the names of which they do not know. The descriptions are improving, and the expert is nearly always able to give the right names of the birds described. These are sent to the schoob. All young persons who are now making effort in country districts to have the New York State farms the best in the...
