Can We Talk is a spiritual conversation given from the holy spirit himself to each of those who are willing to take time out, meditate, and be obedient to what our savior; our creator, have started from the beginning of time. In order to possess the spiritual things of life, one must understand that seeing things different at times is not a bad thing, depending on the decision made to bring human man kind to a better way of living. If we are willing to walk by faith and not by sight, we can get the miraculous, unusual, unexpected, nonfiction situations to take place. Miracles are for those that don't walk by fear but by faith. After miracles have been displayed before the human eye, as Christians, we can't allow doubt to come in and detour us to another direction of our beliefs. If we understand the image that we have been created in, we won't see each other in a negative way. Christ's image is a loving, unconditional, and bearing all things, creating the positive out of the negative attitude. When we allow these attributes to...
