The history of the origin and progress of the war now waging in the East--the dark tale of incompetency and departmental mismanagement--the resulting misery and suffering among our troops--their brilliant deeds of daring in the battle-field--their indomitable perseverance in the siege operations, under privations of no ordinary kind--their discipline, their fortitude, and their uncomplaining patience under suffering, are events of too recent occurrence to require to be here recorded. The heroic exploits of the gallant army will be chronicled, as they well deserve to be, by abler pens than ours; and the fatal mistakes which have been among the chief causes of its sufferings, will, we trust, lead to a satisfactory reform in the military system of this country, which, by putting the right men in the right places, may prevent a recurrence of such deplorable events. These are subjects which it would be out of place to discuss in the pages of a medical journal, but for the circumstance that much blame has been thrown upon the medical department of the army. Its organization has been loudly condemned by the newspaper press; its system of management has been called in question; an outcry has been raised against the Director-General, and he has been held up to public odium, as having, through his neglect, sacrificed thousands of our gallant soldiers. We propose to examine, by the evidence contained in the Reports laid before Parliament, how far these charges...
