When one minister has announced an appointment for divine worship, the other shall then make his appointment eight days later, so that all things may be done in peace and order. Art. 13. The church-council shall take care that, if two deaths occur near the same time, the one that died first be buried first. If, however, the friends of the one that died first be not ready to bury, they shall then notify the friends of the one that died last, and these shall then proceed to bury their dead. If in this matter any one should be negligent and cause strife at or in the church, men shall then be chosen from each congregation, and these men shall settle the case and severely reprimand the guilty. Art. 14. In this church the church-council shall permit no person to preach, who has not been examined, found qualified, and been licensed by one of the Evangelical Lutheran or Reformed Ministeriums to perform the duties of the office of teacher or preacher. That we will be governed by the above rules, we obligate ourselves by affixing our signatures: Jacob Wentz, -Henry Wentz, John Zimmerman Elders. John Berkir, Deacons. Jacob Shuman, J Hen. Zimmerman, -John Garber, I Building Henry Wentz, f Committee. George Faust, J Jonathan Sieger, George Stroup, David Kern. The above Church-rules have long since become a dead letter. Each congregation now manages its ecclesiastical affairs according...
