Reporting Under Fire: 16 Daring Women War Correspondents and Photojournalists

By Kerrie Logan Hollihan

Chicago Review Press. Hardback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Reporting Under Fire: 16 Daring Women War Correspondents and Photojournalists, Kerrie Logan Hollihan, The tremendous struggles women have faced as war correspondents and photojournalists A profile of 16 courageous women, Reporting Under Fire tells the story of journalists who risked their lives to bring back scoops from the front lines. Each woman—including Sigrid Schultz, who broadcast news via radio from Berlin on the eve of the Second World War; Margaret Bourke-White, who rode with General George Patton's Third Army and brought back the first horrific photos of the Buchenwald concentration camp; and Marguerite Higgins, who typed stories while riding in the front seat of an American jeep that was fleeing the North Korean Army—experiences her own journey, both personally and professionally, and each draws her own conclusions. Yet without exception, these war correspondents share a singular ambition: to answer an inner call driving them to witness war firsthand, and to share what they learn via words or images.
