Wells, Representing the North Side Board of Trade at the Public Hearing by the Board of Estimate and Apportionment of the City of New York, September 16th, 1904 Green Be The Turf. Written at the old Hunt Grange, still standing at Hunt s Point, by Fitz-Greene Halleck In memory of his friend and companion Joseph Rodman Drake, a few days after his death, September 21st, 1820. Green be the turf above thee, Friend of my better days! None knew thee but to love thee, Nor named thee but to praise. Tears fell when thou wert dying, From eyes unused to weep, And long, where thou art lying, Shall tears the cold turf steep. When hearts whose truth was proven, Like thine, are laid in earth, There should a wreath be woven To tell the world their worth. And I who wake each morrow, To clasp thy hand in mine, Who shared thy joy and sorrow, Whose weal and woe were thine - It should be mine to...
