Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Ireland s Case for Freedom The ancient sovereign State of Ireland, one of the primary sovereign States of Christendom, claims resumption of her sovereign independence, recognition of her status by the International Peace Congress, and intervention on her behalf by way of international guarantee of future respect for her independence and submits in support of her claim the subjoined fourteen Propositions, prefaced by a brief Synopsis of them, respectively: I. The Irish Nation earnestly desires the International Peace Congress to be pure and impartial in its constitution and proceedings, beyond the reach of the power and contamination of States guilty of entering into secret treaties in conflict with their public professions and with the rights and interests of peoples subject to them and of peoples subject to other States; beyond the reach of all influences save those of authentic history and justice; in order that it may inspire confidence in all nations, small as well as great to be affected by its decisions; and that those decisions may be of a character fitting for the beginning of a new era of amity among, nations and peaceful progress throughout the world. II. Ireland is historically entitled to independence as one of the primary sovereign States of Christendom, never having forfeited or lost her sovereign status or consciously recognized sovereignty over her in any other country; always having so resented and resisted the usurpation of foreign military force that the continual presence of an army of occupation has always been, and still is, essential to the maintenance of foreign rule; having always venerated, and still venerating as her truest patriots the purest and best of her sons...
